

MS. SAMANTHA BARBER
(Dunfermline, Fife, Scotland, 1969)

Member of the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee.

Bachelor of Arts in Applied Foreign Languages and European Politics from the University of Northumbria, Newcastle (England, United Kingdom), with subjects (Value Units) of the University General Studies Diploma (Diplôme d'Études Universitaires Générales) in Applied Foreign Languages and Business Economics from the University of Dijon (France) and Graduate Course in EC Law at the University of Nancy (France).

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMMITTEE OF WHICH SHE IS A MEMBER:

She is currently a Non-Executive Director of the Centre for Scottish Public Policy and a member of the Business Advisory Board of Glasgow Caledonian University.

She possesses management experience at business organizations that promote corporate social responsibility. It is worth mentioning that for nine years, she was the Chief Executive of Scottish Business in the Community (SBC), a non-profit organization that promotes the development of sustainable economy in Scotland. She was also a board member of Business for Scotland, a business organization that aims to engage the Scottish business community in a dialogue on the tax, economic and social impact of a constitutional reform in Scotland.

She has also had contact with tasks relating to her current position on the Corporate Social Responsibility Committee, and has held consulting positions with the European Parliament in Brussels, where she represented various stakeholders on the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee, within the framework of the various votes and proposals.