

MS. SAMANTHA BARBER
(Dunfermline, Fife, Escocia, 1969)

BA with honours in Applied Foreign Languages and European Politics from the University of Northumbria, Newcastle, UV de DEUG in Applied Foreign Languages and Business Economics from the University of Dijon, France and Postgraduate in EC Law from the University of Nancy, France.

For nine years, she was the Chief Executive of Scottish Business in the Community (SBC), the leading business organisation in Scotland promoting corporate responsibility, working closely with the President of SBC, HRH The Prince of Wales.

She was also Director of Business for Scotland, a business organisation to engage the Scottish business community in a dialogue on the fiscal, economic and social impact for constitutional change for Scotland. She worked in Brussels as a Policy Advisor on the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee of the European Parliament in Brussels.

Currently, she is a Non Executive Director for the Centre for Scottish Public Policy and a member of the Business Advisory Board for Glasgow Caledonian University.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document which this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.