

MS. INÉS MACHO STADLER
(Bilbao, 1959)

Degree in Economics from Universidad del País Vasco, Masters in Economy from l'École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales (Paris) and Doctorate in Economy (Ph. D.) from the same academic institution and from l'École Nationale de la Statistique et de l'Administration Économique (ENSAE).

She is the author of scores of books, reports and papers published in international scientific magazines focusing on industrial economy problems, contracts and regulation. Together with other co-authors, she received the XI Premi Catalunya d'Economia (2007).

She is currently a Professor of Economics in the Economics and Economic History Department of the Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona. She is an elected member of the Council of the European Economic Association, honorary member of the European Economic Association and of the Asociación Española de Economía and a member of the Advisory Council of the Studies Service of "la Caixa".

She has taught and done research at Universidad del País Vasco (Bilbao) and Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona, and has been visiting professor in California, Copenhagen, Leuven, Montreal and Munich. She has been President of Asociación Española de Economía, coordinator of Agencia Nacional de Evaluación y Prospectiva and representative at the European Science Foundation.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document which this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.